Autos Make Road Quit. ASHLAND, Ore., Jan. 29.—The Southern Pacific's motor service between Ashland and Grants Pass makes its exit after a month of competition with automobiles between this city and Medford. Two rival lines are running on a 24-minute schedule. Fare one way is 25 cents, or 50 cents round trip.

The railway fare is 40 cents one way, a distance of 12 miles. Pacific Highway paving improvements make this competition possible. Cuts are being made in freight rates also, the railway tariff being 15 cents a hundred pounds. The automobile trucks haul for less.

Recognized Advantages. You will find that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has recognized advantages over most medicines in use for coughs and colds. It does not suppress a cough but loosens and relieves it. It acts expectorantly and opens the secretions which enables the system to throw off a cold. It counteracts any tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia. It contains no opium or other narcotic, and may be given to a child as confidently as to an adult. For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

Babes Tossed to Father. FORD CITY, Pa., Jan. 29.—All six being cut off by the flames, Leo Liberto, a fruitdealer, jumped from the second story window of his store and dwelling here recently, and his wife then tossed one at a time, his four children to him. The children were all rescued without injury. Mr. Liberto jumped from the window and while her husband broke her fall, she was injured. The building was destroyed and the loss was estimated at $5000.

The children were dropped 14 feet by their mother into the arms of their father. Mrs. Liberto was awakened by an odor of smoke in the bedroom. She awakened her husband and when he opened the door into the hallway he observed that the hallway and stairway were in flames. Liberto then jumped from the window and his children were tossed to him. The building was a two-story frame and the loss on the building was estimated at $3000 and the loss on stock at $200.

Colds and Croup in Children. Many people rely upon Chamberlain's Cough Remedy implicitly in cases of colds and croup, and it never disappoints them. Mrs. E. H. Thomas, Logansport, Ind., writes: "I have found Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be the best medicine for colds and croup I have ever used, and never tire of recommending it to my friends. I have always given it to my children when suffering from colds and croup and it has never failed to give them prompt relief." For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

Eminent Domain Right Conferred. SALEM, Ore., Feb. 1.—The senate committee on commerce and navigation decided to report favorably on house bill 77, by Olson, conferring the right of eminent domain upon gas companies. It was pointed out that the right of securing right of way by condemnation proceedings was vested in all large corporations, such as railroads, but that gas companies had not hitherto been included.

"The Best Laxative I Know Of." "I have sold Chamberlain's Tablets for several years. People who have used them will take nothing else. I can recommend them to my customers as the best laxative and cure for constipation that I know of," writes Frank Strouse, Fruitland, Iowa. For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

How to Prevent Bilious Attacks. "Coming events cast their shadows before." This is especially true of bilious attacks. Your appetite will fall, you will feel dull and languid. If you are subject to bilious attacks take three of Chamberlain's Tablets as soon as these symptoms appear and the attack may be averted. For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

Tax Measures Withdrawn. SALEM, Ore., Feb. 1.—Two bills designed to levy a 3 per cent tax on gross revenues of private car companies and other public utilities were withdrawn by Representative Schuebel in the house. The author explained that conditions were not ripe for such a tax but that it is sure to come. The house killed a third bill on the same subject in the afternoon.

Starved Family Poisoned. LIMON, Colo., Jan. 29.—Fearing death by starvation, Frank LaLone, a French homesteader, poisoned himself and his entire family, consisting of his wife and five children. LaLone and four of the children, two boys and two girls, are dead, his wife is dying and a fifth child is ill, but not in danger.

Coroner Kenaga believes that the man's mind was unbalanced by poverty and repeated ill fortune which has beset him since he came to this section from Iowa three years ago. The bodies were found by neighbors. LaLone was still living, but unconscious. The surviving child told the coroner she went to bed Monday night and did not wake until Wednesday morning. Seeing all the others asleep she did not get up. She was found asleep beside her two dead sisters, aged 7 and 9, and a dead brother, aged 13. Another brother, 3, lay dead in his unconscious mother's arms.

Hard Colds—People whose blood is pure are not nearly so likely to take hard colds as are others. Hood's Sarsaparilla makes the blood pure; and this great medicine recovers the system after a cold as no other medicine does. Take Hood's.—Adv.

Dramatists Set Example. NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—George Barnard Shaw, who intends to visit the United States before long and who has been writing appeals to the public to contribute to the fund of the Commission for Relief in Belgium, has demonstrated that he himself indulges in the practice he urges upon others. At the local office of the commission, at 71 Broadway, a check for $255.12 was received from the English writer. In a letter accompanying his contribution he stated:

"As I cannot decently call upon the world to contribute to your funds without setting an example myself, I enclose a check for as much as I think I can afford at this particular moment, when it is so extremely hard to find out what one's real financial position is going to be."

Severe Blood Troubles Vanish With Magic Effect, Great Remedy Makes Disease Disappear.

At almost any drug store you may obtain S. S. S., the famous blood purifier, and you then have the veritable wizard that makes all blood troubles vanish. Your stomach takes kindly to S. S. S., it rushes into your blood, is a purifying wave, makes the liver, kidneys, bladder and skin work in harmony; stops accumulations that have caused rheumatism, catarrh, swollen glands, sore throat and skin eruptions.

Just as food makes blood, so does S. S. S. follow the process of digestion to stimulate natural secretions to protect us against the ravages of disease germs. We are well aware of the fact that these germs are apt to be latent within us to break forth in violent eruptions of the skin whenever the system is in a low state of resistance. And it is for both prevent these eruptions or to get rid of them that Nature gave us such an ally as S. S. S. It is purely vegetable, contains no mercury, and yet it overcomes those serious troubles for which mercury has been employed for ages. In every community are people who know this to be true. They owe to S. S. S. their recovery. Get a bottle today. Refuse all substitutes. Read the folder around the bottle that tells of the wonderful work being done by the medical department in assisting users of S. S. S. WHAT the Press Agent Has to Say of Present and Coming Attractions

"THE PIT" IS PASTIME FILM, Wilton Lackaye to Appear in Celebrated Wall-Street Play Today.

Wilton Lackaye, the great actor, supported by Gail Kane, comes to the Pastime theater for an engagement of two days in "The Pit," a five-act photo-play production of Frank Norris' novel and play of the same title. William A. Brady is responsible for the film production. Mr. Brady also produced the play in which Mr. Lackaye starred for several seasons with great success.

"The Pit" is a story founded on the desperate attempt of a daring speculator several years ago to corner wheat in Chicago. Curtis Jadin, in this play, "gets his" in the way of moral teaching with unmistakable emphasis. He is well placed in the world. Chicago's smart set ranks him as one of her own. He wins a young and beautiful girl with money and they start married life equipped with youth, bank rolls, social position, good health and good looks, in fact everything save contentment, so far at least as the man is concerned.

Jadin is smitten with the gambling fever. Wheat is his medium. During his career in "The Pit" he neglects his wife, who is pursued by another man with the gift of music and endearing phrases. Jadin's pulsing alternate with his losses and finally he resolves to round off his career by cornering wheat and making his fortune. But in a great scene he is beaten by opposing cohorts who combine against him.

The wheat pit scene is said to be the most wonderful ever produced in a photo-play. In it are more than
